Christ be our Light

Reading from the Book of Revelation
According to John

In his vision, John said: I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and people and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

For this reason, they are before the throne of God, and worship Him day and night within His temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd.

And he will guide them to the springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever, Amen.

Prayer – Inviting God

As the cold and dark days of winter come upon us, we remember those who have passed through the doorway of death. All of us experience grief at various times. Each of us will face our own death one day. As people of faith, however, we believe that death is not the end but the dawn of a new life.

Jesus, by your Resurrection you have conquered death. May the souls of those whose passing we have mourned, especially our family members and colleagues, rejoice in the glory of life everlasting. May our own lives, whether they be long or short, be shining examples of compassion and hope.

Lead us forward together in the light of your truth. Amen.

Inviting God, Krystyna Higgins
